Antyczna historia wynalazków w renesansowej refleksji

The history of ancient inventors in intellectual conception of Renaissance

SUMMARY

In this contribution we will to present some observations about poem De rerum et artium inventoribus written by Marco Antonio Sabellico, Italian poet and historian (1436-1506). This poem written about 1488, was in Cracow 1521 reprinted. Sabellico starts by describing many achievements of material and intellectual culture in the earliest stages of ancient history, especially Grecian history. It is very interesting that Sabellico took over all informations about ancient inventors from Pliny's work Historia Naturalis (VII, § 191-215).
